Where am I covered?

- ✓ Trips: You are covered for trips made to your country of temporary residence where you are undertaking your international programme.
- ✓ Holidays: You are covered for holidays within or outside your country of temporary residence up to a maximum duration of up to 21 days per holiday, which begins and ends within the period of insurance.

What are my obligations?

- Claim notification should be made as soon as possible after any bodily injury, serious illness, disease, incident, event, redundancy or the discovery of any loss, theft or damage which may lead to a claim under this policy.
- If you suffer a serious illness or bodily injury which leads to you being an inpatient in hospital or before any arrangements are made for repatriation, you must contact the Emergency Assistance Service.
- You must take all reasonable precautions to avoid injury, serious illness, disease, loss, theft or damage and take all reasonable steps to safeguard your property from loss or damage and to recover any lost or stolen property.
- You must take care to answer all questions honestly and to the best of your knowledge. You must not make any misrepresentation of a fact that could influence us in accepting this insurance.
- If, at the time of any incident which results in a claim under this policy, there is another insurance covering the same loss, damage, expense or liability, then you must disclose this to us at the time of submitting a claim.
- You must provide all necessary documentation requested by us at your expense. If you do not provide this any claim may be refused.
- You must not admit, deny, settle, reject, negotiate or make any arrangement for any claim without our permission.

When and how do I pay?

The premium is due immediately on the issue date of the insurance policy. The premium must be paid directly to your school, institution or agency only, as the policyholder.

When does the cover start and end?

Section A – Part 1: Rearrangement, Cancellation or Abandonment cover commences on the issue date on the most recent certificate of insurance.

All other cover under this policy commences on the Cover Start Date as stated on the certificate of insurance or when you depart your home country to commence your trip, whichever is later.

All cover automatically ends on the earliest occurrence of a below listed event (whichever event is sooner):

- a) the cover end date as shown on the insured person(s) most recent certificate of insurance; or
- b) the insured person(s) no longer meets the eligibility criteria; or
- c) the insured person(s) visa is revoked or has expired; or
- d) the insured person(s) period of insurance has expired; or
- e) following emergency repatriation to the insured persons home country; or
- f) we no longer underwrite this policy.

How do I cancel the contract?

Cancellation by the insured person applies as follows:

Cancellation within 14 working days of the purchase date:

You may not cancel this policy, however, you may choose to end your cover and your entitlements to all benefits under this policy by writing to the policyholder within 14 working days of the purchase date. Please contact the policyholder for a premium refund providing you have not travelled, and no claim has been made or is intended to be made and no incident likely to give rise to a claim has occurred.

Cancellation after 14 working days of the purchase date:

You may choose to end your cover and your entitlements to all benefits under this policy by writing to the policyholder 14 working days after the purchase date. If you cancel outside of the terms of the Statutory Cancellation Rights, referenced above, the policyholder will not receive a premium refund.
